NOTE 4.—Where a member of the Service is in receipt of personal pay on the 1st day of January 2006, which together with his existing emoluments exceeds the revised emoluments, then, the difference representing such excess shall be allowed to such member of the Service as personal pay to be absorbed in future increases in pay.

NOTE 5.—In the case of members of the Service who are in receipt of personal pay for passing Hindi Pragya and such other examinations under the "Hindi Teaching Scheme" prior to the 1st day of January, 2006, while the personal pay shall not be taken into account for purposes of fixation of initial pay in the revised pay structure, they would continue to draw personal pay after fixation of their pay in the revised pay structure on and from the 1st day of January, 2006 or subsequently for the period for which they would have drawn it but for the fixation of their pay in the revised pay structure and the quantum of such personal pay would be paid at the appropriate rate of increment in the revised pay structure from the date of fixation of pay for the period for which the officer would have continued to draw it.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this Note, "appropriate rate of increment in the revised pay structure" means an amount equal to 3% of the sum of the pay in the pay band and the grade pay at the stage at which the pay of the employee is fixed in the revised pay structure.

(e) If even in the lower post, the junior officer was drawing more pay in the pre-revised scale than the senior by virtue of any advance increments granted to him, the provisions of this Note need not be invoked to step up the pay of the senior member of the Service.

NOTE 7.—The order relating to re-fixation of the pay of the senior Member of the Service in accordance with the above provisions shall be issued under the relevant rules and the senior member of the Service shall be entitled to the next increment on completion of his required qualifying service with effect from the date of re-fixation of pay.
