No. 22 of 2011—Chennai City Police (Extension to the Chennai City Suburban Area) Repeal Act	125

The following Act of the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly received the assent of the Governor on the 24th September 2011 and is hereby published for general information:—

ACT No. 20 of 2011.

An Act further to amend the Anna University Act, 1978 and to repeal certain University Laws.

WHEREAS the Perarignar Anna University of Technology (Unitary type) was established in 1978 comprising the College of Engineering, Guindy, four departments of the University of Madras located in the Alagappa Chettiyar College of Technology, Guindy and Madras Institute of Technology, Chrompet, Chennai by the Perarignar Anna University of Technology Act, 1978 (Tamil Nadu Act 30 of 1978). Its name was changed as Anna University in 1982 by amending the said Tamil Nadu Act 30 of 1978, by the Perarignar Anna University of Technology (Amendment and Special Provisions) Act, 1982 (Tamil Nadu Act 26 of 1982);

AND WHEREAS the Anna University was converted into an affiliating type university by amending the said Tamil Nadu Act 30 of 1978 suitably, by the Anna University (Amendment) Act, 2001 (Tamil Nadu Act 26 of 2001) with effect from the 31st December 2001. Consequent upon this, 237 Engineering Colleges, which were earlier affiliated to various Universities in the State, were affiliated to the Anna University;

AND WHEREAS in December 2006, after the Anna University became the affiliating type University, it was realized that managing the affairs of more than 240 engineering colleges across the State from Chennai was difficult. The Government subsequently established five more Technical Universities namely, the Anna University, Tiruchirappalli by Tamil Nadu Act 41 of 2006 and the Anna University, Coimbatore by Tamil Nadu Act 42 of 2006, with effect from the 1st February 2007 and the Anna University, Tirunelveli by Tamil Nadu Act 28 of 2007 with effect from the 17th July 2007, the Anna University of Technology, Chennai by Tamil Nadu Act 26 of 2010 and the Anna University of Technology, Madurai by Tamil Nadu Act 27 of 2010, with effect from the 19th June 2010, in the State with clearly demarcated areas. Subsequently, the Anna University, Tiruchirappalli, the Anna University, Coimbatore and the Anna University, Tirunelveli are renamed as the Anna University of Technology, Tiruchirappalli, the Anna University of Technology, Coimbatore and the Anna University of Technology, Tirunelveli, respectively;

AND WHEREAS, in the year 2010, the Anna University, Chennai has been converted again into an unitary type University as it existed prior to 2002 with effect from the 19th June 2010;

AND WHEREAS, in the past four years of the functioning of the Universities of Technology, the following difficulties are experienced:—

(i) There is confusion due to the establishment of several Universities in the same name of Anna University of Technology;

(ii) As each University is following its own syllabus, there is no uniformity in curricula and teaching the subjects to the students;

(iii) There is a lot of difference in examining the skills of the students, as each University is following its own procedures regarding the assessment of skills of the students. The Common Board comprising the Vice-Chancellors formed to examine the above issues could not find suitable solutions;

(iv) Though separate Anna Universities of Technology have been established, the fully qualified professors remained in the Anna University (Unitary type). Due to this, the skills of those professors are not accessible to the students of the other Anna Universities of Technology;

(v) There is apprehension in the minds of the students studying in the Anna Universities of Technology that they may not get recognition in the job market and international education milieu on par with the student in the Anna University (Unitary type);

(vi) Except the Anna University of Technology, Tiruchirappalli, the other Anna Universities of Technology are not having full fledged infrastructure facilities;

(vii) The financial viability of the Anna Universities of Technology is in question as they do not have sufficient number of colleges affiliated to them;

AND WHEREAS, in order to remove the difficulties and confusions, the Government have decided to wind up the Anna Universities of Technology established under various Anna University of Technology Acts and to bring all the engineering colleges in the State under the Anna University by converting the said University into an affiliating type University;

BE it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Tamil Nadu in the Sixty-second Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Tamil Nadu University Laws (Amendment and Repeal) Act, 2011.
