ABSTRACT

ESTABLISHMENT - Local Bodies - Sanitary workers - to be treated on par with Basic servants - Orders - Issued

RURAL DEVELOPMENT AND LOCAL ADMINISTRATION

G.O.Ms.No.897

Dated: 26th April 1983.

ORDER:

The representatives of the Sanitary workers have been urging the Government for the benefits which are applicable to Basic servants from time to time. The Government have discussed this question at a Joint Meeting held on 12.4.83 with the representatives of the sanitary workers and the Heads of Departments concerned and it was agreed at that meeting that except the difference in the scales of pay of the sanitary workers and the Basic servants, all other benefits enjoyed by the Basic servants shall be made applicable to the Sanitary workers taken into regular establishment of local bodies.

2) The Government hereby direct that notwithstanding the difference in the pay scales of these sanitary workers and the Basic servants the sanitary workers taken into regular establishment of local bodies shall be eligible for all the benefits given to the Basic servants employed in the local bodies.

(BY ORDER OF THE GOVERNOR)
