In the Government Order cited, Government have orded payment of lumpsum to Government servants for acquiring higher qualifications.
A point has been raised as to who should sanction the above lumpsum grant to a Government servant on foreign service.

2. The Government clarify that the Lumpsum grant has to be sanctioned and paid by the parent department of the individual under the Government service. The foreign employer may pay the lumpsum initially on the sanction order issued by the Government department and get it re-imbursed by the Government later.

Yours faithfully,

Sd/x x x x
